

OGC HAS REVIEWED.

CONFIDENTIAL

Contract No. — c/o

Washington, D. C.

Dear _____

1. The Government of the United States hereby contracts with you for the preparation and submission of certain studies in connection with research problems. The subject and nature of these studies will be outlined for you by the Government in separate project directives, which are incorporated herein by reference as establishing the work to be performed under this Contract.
2. You are to proceed with your undertaking in accordance with the instructions of the Project Officer, or his authorized representative, as directed in the aforesaid separate project directives, forwarding to him such interim reports from time to time as may be required. You shall furnish a final report of your findings and conclusions in such form and detail as may be required by the Government. The final report will be submitted not later than _____. [All drafts, notes, drawings, surveys, bibliographies, and other technical data or documents prepared by you in connection with your undertaking shall at all times be the property of the Government and shall be available for inspection by, and shall be delivered to, the Government whenever requested by the Project Officer. Access to such data shall be restricted to duly authorized representatives of the Government and to such of your collaborators, if any, as may be acceptable to the Government.]
3. For each final report, delivered to the Project Officer in acceptable form and content, you shall be paid the amounts authorized in the applicable project directives. Payment of the amounts specified herein shall constitute payment in full to you and shall include all costs of supplies, material, equipment and other expenses incurred by you in performing hereunder.
4. You agree at all times to permit the Project Officer, or his authorized representative, to visit and inspect the progress of the reports or studies called for in each separate project directive and in addition, that you will report the progress of each study or report from time to time upon request of the Project Officer, or his authorized representative.
5. All information related to the study and contained in the project directives and in this Contract is confidential and shall be deemed to be information pertaining to National Defense under the Espionage Act of 1917, as amended, and you shall not divulge such information to any one except the authorized representative of the Project Officer.

CONFIDENTIAL

6. The Government shall be the sole proprietor of the reports to be made by you hereunder, and includes, without limitation, not only complete right of publication throughout the world, but the exclusive right to print, reprint, publish, copy, translate, and completely control the aforesaid report or studies, however submitted.

7. The Government reserves the right to terminate this Contract upon days actual notice, in which event settlement will be made on the basis of the cost incurred by the Contractor up to and including the effective date of termination. Upon payment of any recognized termination costs, title to all reports or studies, whether complete or incomplete, and without regard to the form thereof, will vest in the Government.

BY:

Authorized Contracting
Officer

ACCEPTED:

CONFIDENTIAL